"I am married to my husband of 31 years. Troy and I have 2 daughters. I have plenty of jobs. My full-time job is a bookkeeper/office manager. I am also a travel agent, an Alison's Pantry Rep, and I do books out of my home for a farmer. Troy is a loan officer at Farm Credit, Alexis is 29 years old and a speech pathologist and Baillie is 25 years old and a 4th grade teacher. Both of our girls live in Burlington as well and we love it!! I became an Alison's Pantry sales rep in 2016 when the rep that was selling it moved. We love the product and I didn't know what we would do without it. We had just become empty nesters the year before and I needed more to do. So, after talking to the previous sales rep and realizing it would be an easy task, we bought all of her freezers and got started. I was fortunate to get her customer list. Over the years, some have stopped ordering but many new customers have come on board. I love people and this is a great way to get to have many friends and have a monthly chat session with each one. Being a sales rep has given my husband and myself more opportunity for travel because I save every commission check just for that. On top of the travel, being a rep has been a great help with our grocery budget and less time grocery shopping. I basically get paid to buy my own groceries and I don't have to go to the grocery store very often. That is definitely a win-win situation!"

 "I paired the Roasted Root Vegetables with the Real Good Bacon Wrapped Three Cheese Stuffed Chicken (#2762). Quick and easy cooking and cleaning on a work night when I was overtired. With the sweet potatoes, carrots, and onions, this blend does has a bit of natural sweetness to it, but I loved the flavor of the spice blend they put on it."

"The Rich's Dessert Whip is quickly becoming one of my family's favorite go-to, quick and easy desserts. We love to pair it with the Keebler Graham Tart Shells and fill as we want.
